About LizenzDirekt

With offices in Switzerland, Austria, and Germany, we are one of the leading European dealers in used software licenses.

Our management is made up of industry pioneers with extensive experience in the software market gained over many years. Our clients include international companies, medium-sized companies and government authorities. We are listed in the pre-qualification database as a "reliable high-performance company".

Benefits for you

Licenses according to your needs

Buy licenses cheaper – either up to date or older versions AND sell the licenses you don't need.

Many years of industry experience

Benefit from our solid expertise and our experience as pioneers in the field and big project management for comprehensive advice and legal certainty.

Certified staff

Get confident and stress-free guidance navigating the license jungle and certified expertise dealing with audit matters.

Independent

Independent advice to help you buy only the software and licenses you need, not the programs or versions the manufacturers are promoting.

Financial strength

As an established company, we can offer you the financial benefits that come with reliable delivery, guaranteed payment, sustainability for the long term, consistency and reliability.

Authenticity

Enjoy a cooperative working style characterised by respect, trust, friendship, attention to detail and professionalism. We are in this for real.
